

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

Program	Contact	Ideas
International Students	Audra Boni/Bentley Aboni@bentley.edu	Get Noticed By Employers Program – focus on effective job search communication skills
	Michelle Lederhos/Babson MLederhos7@babson.edu	Partnership with OIP on Employment Autho Workshops, orientation, CPT/OPT autho, etc. Also, partnership with OIP-Ed Abroad Integration & programs: resume with application, pre dept orientation, resources/ access while abroad, returnee event
	Nikki Nicosia/Babson nnicosia@babson.edu	Joint advising with career services
	Bill Martin/Yale School of Mgmt. Bill.martin@yale.edu	Teaching International Students how to network in U.S. Business Culture – 4 week sessions (1 hour)
	Dana Riechman/Boston College riechman@bc.edu	International Assistant Program (IA) pairs each new international student/exchange student with an IA (could be domestic or international student) IAs help IS’s adjust with literally, socially, and academically.
	Sheri Ispir /Johnson & Wales sispire@jwu.edu	International Student Volunteering Program: Collaboration between career services and community service learning. 1-career services provide resume prep and career planning. 2-community service works with student on placing in non-profit. 3-student: completes and career services assists student in enhancing resume.
	Barbara Zerillo bZerillo@darku.edu	Cultural Awareness Course: offered through Graduate School to International Students
	Nells Codina/Boston Univ. ncodina@bu.edu	Common Ground Program: Team building at orientation
	Don Ross/Salem State dross@salemstate.edu	ESL Conversation Coffee Hours: Bring various levels of ESL students together to share based on topics, i.e. valentine’s day or Halloween
		Dedicated Staff Position” International Community coordinator: liaises between academic and service areas to create connections between domestic and international students. Full range of programs. Family Host, volunteer
	Westfield State Univ. dinnarelli@westfield.ma.edu	International Student Orientations: campus tours, each department gives scope of success, J-Term, Experience (exchange programs)
	Susan Shea/Boston College	Employment Workshop series for International

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

sheasc@bc.edu	Students: Employment series in cooperation with the career center
Marissa Capineri/Emerson College Marissa_capineri@emerson.edu	Teaching American resume writing to international students
Karen Pabon/Wellesley kpabon@wellesly.edu	Marketing Your Global Competency Skills: Helps international students recognize and present their global competency skills
Lisa Gavigan Gavigan_lisa@wheatonma.edu	January ESL + Program: piloted 2012, morning language classes, afternoon workshops with career success, student life, etc. Evening Social Programs
Nancy Paulsen/Siena College npaulsen@siena.edu	Cultural Assimilation Training Program: Focus group initiated by local organization to identify problems and “wish I knew before I came to the U.S.” matters to help newly arrived international students +families who are moving to our area
Kathy Foley-Giorgio/Middlebury Folygio@middlebury.edu	Post college professional/personal planning: pilot program for int’l first-year students around financial services , colleagues, tax office, ISSS as a testing ground for broader financial literacy goals for the institution
Don O’Connor Doconnor3@babson.edu	Career Ed, re: work authorization regs for Int’l Students also including immigration attorney presentations
Nicole Klein/Brandeis nklein@brandeis.edu	Sessions detailing the differences between American resumes and international resumes/cvs
Nikki Nicosia/Babson nnicosia@babson.edu	Working in the US: different kinds of work available in the U.S.
Shimrit Paley/Tufts Shimrit.paley@tufts.edu	International Student Networking Night: goals include connecting international students with international alumni, promoting/teaching networking as a way to find a job, highlighting alumni success stories, highlighting some international student friendly companies/employers
Jane Pavese/Brandeis jpavese@brandeis.edu	Joint Workshop: Career Services and Office of international students and scholars – US job search and visa requirements/ process
Claudia Ortiz cortiz@massbay.edu	International peer mentor program: this program has been implemented to integrate the new international students on campus by students that have participated on study abroad programs

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

Babson d.sosnwsli@babson.edu	Pre-MBA orientation: 1 week prior, student ambassadors greet upcoming international students and familiarize with the campus, introduction to basic career + job search in the U.S. , meet with career advisors
Marisa Vacchi Marisa.vacchi@eusa-edu.com	Professional Development Course: contextualizes students international relationship experience and how to highlight the skills required for the future
Wheaton Bchalot_benjamin@wheatoncollege.edu	Summer Language Institute: 150 prospective Chinese students come to campus for one month for language classes, college visits, social programs, field trips
Anne Creamer Harvard Graduate School of Design Boston University mbrill@bu.edu	Job Search Strategies for International Students: 1.5 hour presentation with Q + A Interviewing in the U.S: Large group workshop to explain briefly cultural differences. Ex: role play, do's and don'ts
Amy Sanford/Harvard University asanford@fas.harvard.edu Meaghan Murphy/cisabroad mmurphy@cisabroad.com	Power Ties: Dan Beaudry, International Students guide to finding a job in the USA International Students (more for overseas): "French Buddy" or "Czechmate" where US students/ cisabroad students are paired with local students at the host school. They learn from each other and the host student can show the visitor popular sites, etc.
Ashley Parent/ cisabroad aparent@cisabroad.com	La Vida Local: site directors work closely with students, before, during and after their study abroad program. Promotes cultural immersion while in country
Sara M. Sanford/Brown University Sara_sanford@brown.edu	International Mentorship Program (IMP): student-led (domestic & int'l) mentorship program that assists the acculturation of new undergrad throughout the 1st year. IMP runs undergrad int'l orientation and other programs throughout the year (i.e. job skills, student panels).
Melanie Funken/Suffolk U. mfunken@suffolk.edu	International Student orientation: we are in the process of redeveloping our international student orientation. Any Suggestions Welcome!
Emily Pelkowski/UPI epelkowski@upi.edu	Interviewing Skills Presentation: Teaching Students, including international students, interviewing skills that will benefit them in their job search process
Duane@aglobalcareer.com	A Global Career For B.U: Combined domestic &

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

		int'l student orientations to raise awareness and build skills, to prep students to leverage their diversity during teamwork
	Cynthia Sunjer Ricrdan A/C Cynthia@accedemicinternshipcouncil.org	Cultural mentors between interns from USA + Singapore. Past interns in home country sense a great resource for cultural adjustment programming
Faculty and Staff	Audra Boni/Bentley University aboni@bentley.edu	Faculty and Focus Groups and Training
	Don O'Connor/Babson Doconnor3@babson.edu	Global Alumni Awareness Session to have fac/staff inform students on the network of Alums/Clubs around the globe
	misti@mit.edu	MIT Global Roundtables: Roundtable discussions on topics of critical global importance linking self-selected faculty with students with international experience
		International development symposium event (annual): int'l alum speak to their navigation in working world experiences
	Lee Goldstein, Clark U.	Global Scholar Mentor: 2 year term, staff members mentor global scholars monthly in an off-campus setting
	Andrea Frost/ Johnson & Wales U. afrost@jwu.edu	May 2011 a group of Fac/staff took a trip to China; visited schools, hosted by Marriott and Chinese Ed Community; industry visits, US dept. of state to familiarize faculty and staff on the Chinese culture and behavior and also what types of industry the students are coming home to. Institute training program to spread the knowledge with university community
	Marci McPhee/Brandeis Univ. mcphee@brandeis.edu	Cross Cultural Communication: "Train the Trainers" – 2 full day certificate program about cross-cultural communication for faculty and key staff who work with international students and others
	Adam Motenko/Brandeis Univ. amotenko@brandeis.edu	Cultural Communication Training for Staff: movement towards identifying and resolving issue of technology/language challenges and access to career resources
	Colleen Callahan ccallahan@wpi.edu	Cross-Cultural Awareness Workshop (for faculty & staff): Explain "culture", "intercultural communication", and "cross-cultural awareness". Lengthy discussion of Edward Hall's High & Low Context Culture, Best Practices communicating with int'l students

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

	Donna Sosnowli dsosnowli@babson.edu	GPSA-Babson: cultural orientation (video/interactive), social activities, social activities, introduction of all cultures (int'l dinner), services available across campus
Inter-Group & Campus-wide	Audra Boni/Bentley University aboni@bentley.edu	Cross Cultural Service Initiative (CCSI): Conversation partner program on steroids! Pairs international grad and UG students to do service projects and engage in conversation
	Michael Lucerto/CET Programs mlucerto@academic_travel.com	Campus Ambassador Program: connecting study abroad alumni with international students from host culture on campus. Study Abroad Alumni become the bridge between cultures. China and Middle East focus
	Mandy Reinig arreinig@smcm.edu	World Carnival: weeklong event to expose students to different cultures includes name writing in Asian language, celebrating int'l food, culture show, etc.
	Mandy Reinig arreinig@smcm.edu	Also, 4 trips each semester for int'l students to both local and national attraction ex: oyster fest SOMD, Washington DC, Annapolis
	Kathy Simon ksimon@transy.edu	Alumni Host Families: Alumni in region "adopt" international students. Provides social interaction, family ties, place to stay during breaks, networking
	Lisa Gavigan/Wheaton College Gavigan_lisa@wheatonma.edu	Davis international fellowship competition: for international internships
	Mandy Reinig arreinig@smcm.edu	Boomerang Throwing Contest: expose students to Australian culture
	Mandy Reinig arreinig@smcm.edu	Required first year reading: tends to be on international topic, bring speaker to campus to discuss
	Lauren Creamer/Northeastern l.creamer@neu.edu	Global Frontiers: living learning communities (125 countries represented), year-round in-hall programming focused on global diversity and cultural awareness
	Meaghan Sturtevant/ Northeastern m.sturtevant@neu.edu	Carnevale: (2 months – Feb & Mar) on campus events sponsored by the ISSI + international groups on-campus, helps connect international & domestic students, along with university community
	Nikki Nicosia/Babson nnicosia@babson.edu	Exile of Main Street: 3 speakers from different cultures who are unable to return to home country due to political, religious, etc. beliefs
	Don O'Connor/Babson Doconnor3@babson.edu	Regional "connect" events: major cities - for alums, students, employers – with keynote or

International Careers Consortium (ICC) - Annual Conference 2012
Best Practices: Campus Globalization at Bentley and Northeastern Universities

	panel preceded by: career networking, prospective students info session, followed by the next day treks to local area companies... a real eye-opener for international students
Ben Strevens; 800-655-8965 ben@SAIPrograms.com	Inter-Group Connections: Facilitate interaction between U.S. study abroad students and members of host community through conversation exchange/ volunteer/service learning/internships – Italy study abroad
Susan Shea/Boston College sheasc@bc.edu	Conversation Partners Program: Pairs international students with English speakers including faculty, staff, and students
Allyson Goose/Brandeis agoose@brandeis.edu	Open Dorr Host Program: pairs incoming international students with upper-class students, faculty or staff as “hosts”, planned activities and open opportunities
Douglas Upton Colleges of the Fenway	Pre-Departure Orientations “Break out” Groups: provide destination specific information pertaining to safety, cultural adjustment, academic success, and fun! Returning study abroad or international students connect with outbound students
